Two Notable American Women as They Appeared at a French Supper.

Sad Mariage in Paris with Former Friends Who Now Walk in Different Ways.

How the Insurrections of a Hindoo Indian Were Heavily Hit and Drowned.

New York, Oct. 31.—[Special Correspondence.]—Fashions in fashion grow apace, and demand to be recorded the very year of the progress. Of late, the French engraving shows a new fashion which frankly displays the charms of pretty women fairly well above the ankles, and I was reminded that there had not been gathered together for many a year such a gallery of beauty as a glance at the ball-room of the Opera would rightly display to admiring humanity. There were a great many ankles, of course, as there are and ever should be found; I counted three from a garden of Chinamen and, most of these gathered their skirts with great confidence, as people know who are sure of pretty feet and graceful action from daintily tutored school days; but being accustomed to see the ankle, neither thing was astounding to us, of experience gathered with the observing grip of expert connoisseurship, and thing like a grace.

[illegible]

The lady's waist had also fashions to be well known enough, for it was no other than Mrs. Hicks, now Mrs. Hicks-Lord, with a figure. The other lady was one of the most beautiful and fascinating women I have ever seen. A perfect dove-brown hair, the true shade of perfect maidenly fairness to form and features, with a color unchangingly sweet in speaking, and having nothing to be desired save, as every lacquered, the confidence to sing to the tune of three thousand dollars a year for friends. Both of these ladies were recently most distressingly bereaved, and were seen with their heads to protect with others' grace, for that they did not seem to think such [illegible] that finally their husband to have formed a family acquaintance, and their [illegible] to be [illegible] of the [illegible] which [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

THE RAILROADS.

Geo. W. Baker Becomes Traffic Manager of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Lines.

Conference Fish to be Compelled to Order a Reduction in Coal-Bound Freight Rates.

The New Traffic Manager of the Atlantic & Pacific.

Mr. George W. Baker, who lately resigned the position of Commissioner of the Transcontinental Association, has been appointed Traffic Manager of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad, with temporary headquarters at San Francisco. He is succeeded here by Mr. Barker, who has been appointed Traffic Manager of the Atlantic & Pacific Fast-Freight Line, composed of the Atlantic & Pacific, St. Louis & San Francisco, and Southern, Kansas & Pacific Railways. He will have general charge and supervision of both freight and passenger traffic passing over those roads to and from the Pacific Coast, and will have general charge of the Fast-Freight line, also. Mr. Baker has for many years been General Manager of the Fast-Freight line, also Assistant General Manager of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad, with headquarters at St. Louis. During the last year he has been President of Cross-Section of Transcontinental Associations.

Claims for Concealed Losses.

At a recent meeting of the Association of Eastern Freight Agents of the West, held in Creighton last week, a number of interesting cases in C. O. Commissioner, Loss and Damage Claims, Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway, Chicago, were discussed, and reported on by a committee consisting of Messrs. C. A. Hodgkins, C. F. Daniels, C. J. Ives, E. H. Cunningham, and Thos. Wilson, who examined and reported on behalf of a report on the matter and submitted it to be read at the meeting to be held in St. Louis next December. Several new members were elected to the Eastern Freight Agents of the various roads, a list of the members presented to be elected for next convention.

Miscellaneous Items.

The Chicago & Grand Trunk Railway has filed in the Circuit Court here eleven mechanic's lien judgments, issued for debts to the Pullman Company.

The earnings of the Union Pacific Railroad during the last week amount to $50,000, a decrease of $10,000 from the same period last year. The former earnings, $60,000, included $10,000.

Commissioner Thomas C. Bates announces that the Joint Commission of Chicago Passenger Agents has decided that the latter rates and agents would be adopted this year as last for the Centennial and Rock Island's holidays.

Mr. Henry D. Bell having been appointed chief clerk of the Traffic Manager of the Chicago & Northwestern, the Post Secretary of the Chicago & Northwestern, established from St. Paul, has been discharged. Correspondence addressed to said secretary will hereafter be addressed to the General Freight Agent.

The General Freight Agents of the Burlington route have called the attention of agents and solicitors to the importance of securing their freight business on the road, particularly in the case of merchandise and supplies on which, in summer time, long hauling or running of passenger trains, they receive no profit. Agents are instructed to use every effort to secure their share of freight in regularly routed and declared routes during the season.

It is the general opinion in railroad circles that the Commissioners Fish will be compelled to order within a few days a reduction in coal-bound freight rates on the basis of 50 cents, as requested by the St. Louis roads a few days ago. Although Commissioner Bates has requested the various railroad members of the Joint Executive Committee to strictly maintain their rates in order to avoid a general collapse, it is apparent that the roads are not maintaining the rates established, but that the rates from the regular points through Peoria are nothing short of the Peoria and other points, especially those lying on the Illinois Central, and all rates from Milwaukee, and the Peoria roads are also met with cutting prices at all the above-mentioned points.

THE ASTOR WEDDING.

An Interview with the Bride's Mother.

New York Express: There is joy in the home of the right-hearted and frivolous, for the Astors have returned to the city and the day is now at hand when Miss Astor will be led to the altar to be joined to "the best lands" in the United States. That event will take place the 5th of November, at half-past 5 o'clock.

The Express was the first to announce the coming of the Astors. We have since been informed by the servants of the family that the mistress and her daughter have returned to the city and apparently in the best of health.

"Do you wish to ask her about my daughter's wedding," said she, with a pleasant smile. "I will not tell you all I see, for I believe in giving information to the press myself, so that no mistakes may be made. We have just returned from the country having spent the last few months at Newport and Bar Harbor. We have been in the country for a long time, and I am glad to be back in the city. My personal knowledge of the affair is very extensive, and I will be pleased to give you all the information you desire."

The marriage, which will take place in the drawing-room of the bride's residence, will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Dix, assisted by Dr. Morgan. There will be bands of music in the hallway of the residence, and the wedding march will be played by the orchestra. The entertainment will be given in the evening of the 5th, and will be a grand affair. The invitations have been issued, and will be delivered to-day. The number of invitations issued is 1,000, and 1,000 will be sent out next week.
